> Veterans receive soft skills training and resume assistance.

> Veterans connect with services that provide free work attire for those who need it.

> Practice interview skills with experienced interviewers.

This course is offered in conjunction with Mesa United Way's Bridge to Employment program. The Soft Skills Training Course is open to all U.S. veterans interested in improving work-related soft skills and increasing employability. The class will also include assistance on resumes as well as referrals to free services for those with no resume. Veterans will connect with a service that provides work attire, free of charge, to those who need it. Additionally, Mesa United Way will assist participants seeking employment by connecting them with potential Mesa/East Valley employers.

The class will be taught by Joanna Sweatt, Chief Operating Officer of The Veterans Directory. Joanna is a 10-year Marine Corps Veteran and is an Associate Instructor for a successful Career Readiness course offered through Fourblock.org.
